

Fact Sheet Harassment

What is Quid Pro Quo Harassment?

When certain benefits of employment are conditioned on the victim's submission to unwelcome sexual advances made by his or her supervisor

Key points about Quid Pro Quo harassment

- A victim who eventually succumbs to the advances still has a claim
- The perpetrator of the harassment must be a person with management authority
- The employer is strictly liable for any proven harassment

What is hostile work environment harassment?

A workplace that is sufficiently permeated with severe or pervasive insult, intimidation and/or ridicule based on a person's race, national origin, disability, religion, age or sex such that a reasonable person would find it hostile or abusive

Key points about Hostile Work Environment harassment

- The environment can be caused by vulgar comments, looks (such as leering), stories or jokes, offensive documents or postings, or inappropriate physical contact
- The environment can be created or contributed to by managerial staff, co-workers, vendors, and/or customers
- It can be based on sex or any other protected characteristic

How can an employer avoid liability for Hostile Work Environment harassment?

If the offensive conduct was conducted by a supervisory employee:

- Employer must prove that it exercised reasonable care to prevent and then promptly correct the harassing behavior
- The victim employee must have unreasonably failed to take advantage of the corrective measures provided by the employer
- If the offensive conduct was by a co-worker:
- Employee must prove that employer knew or had reason to know about the behavior but failed to take proper remedial action

What are the potential penalties?

- Back and front pay
- Compensatory damages
- Reinstatement
- Punitive damages
- Attorneys' fees
- Out of pocket losses

Top Harassment tips

- Implement and enforce an anti-harassment policy
- Provide anti-harassment training for all employees
- Provide a means by which victims of harassment can complain and ensure that employees are aware of the complaint procedure
- Investigate all claims of harassment by interviewing all parties involved including witnesses
- Document the investigation with employee sign-offs
- If harassment is proven, take steps to prevent further harassment from occurring, including disciplinary action against the perpetrator(s)
- Refrain from taking any adverse action against the complainant
- Do not promise absolute confidentiality, do promise limited confidentiality

Note: In CA all employers with 50 or more employees must train their supervisors every 2 years